Set in the heart of Texas, the Lone Star Mavericks MC series by Michigan author Rachel Esterline revs with secrets and suspense. Morally gray protectors and strong heroines fight for found family—crossing lines in the haze of smoke, betrayal, and temptation.

Each dual-POV novel throws readers into the fast lane of the outlaw motorcycle club world—where tangled loyalties, scorching chemistry, and high stakes keep you on the edge of your seat.

Reaper & The Lioness is the first book in the standalone interconnected series. Damascus & The Wildfire follows, with the third book releasing in Summer 2026.
